

See End Of Work On Fairey Lake As Funds Spent

Newmarket — Operations at Fairey Lake will probably be suspended tomorrow and if there is to be any further work done, it will not be until next year. The project was started early in August when the town council and the Office Specialty Co. agreed to spend $2,500 each to have excavation equipment remove silt from the bottom on the north and west sides. Town engineer Denno Bosworth told council at a meeting Monday night that the money will have been spent on Friday.

According to the engineer, the area has dried up considerably since the dam gates were opened and it has been found that there is only about four feet of mud on top of a hard clay bottom. The machine, excavating on the west side has cleared away a large area down to the clay bottom.

At council meeting on Monday night, the question was raised as to what had actually been accomplished by spending that amount of money. Councillor Ed Rensz pointed out that spring break-up might fill in the excavated area again with silt. Mayor Vale said that rather than spend a lot of money on the lake, it might be better to spend it on the Bogartown creek where there is a supply of uncontaminated water. He pointed out that this stream

Rev. Perdue Accepts Toronto Parish

Aurora — Rev. R. K. Perdue, rector of Trinity Church of England, has accepted a call to St. Matthews parish, Broadview and Gerrard Sts., Toronto, and will take over his new duties on Sunday, Oct. 3. The same day, the new incumbent to the Aurora parish, Rev. K. B. Whatmough, M.A., will take over the Aurora parish.

Rev. Mr. Perdue came to Aurora in 1941 succeeding Rev. G. O. Lightbourn. Like his predecessor, he enlisted for active service and returned to the local parish in 1946 with a distinguished record of service. Married, with three children, he has played an increasing role in the life of the community, and the parish has prospered and improved under his charge. The parish hall and church have been renovated and re-decorated and the church celebrated its 100th birthday with splendid ceremonies. Mr. Perdue has been chaplain of Branch 385, Canadian Legion, and is one of the trustees of the branch. At St. Matthews, he succeeds Rev. Archdeacon L. G. Sawyers, one of the best known clergymen of the Toronto diocese.

Rev. K. B. Whatmough, the incumbent-to-be, is a graduate of Trinity College and Wycliffe College and comes to Aurora from St. Nicholas church, Birchcliffe, where he has been in charge for six years. He is married with two children, ten and six years, and comes to Aurora with the highest recommendations. He was a classmate of Rev. Perdue.

A.H.S. Pupils Set Sights For Future Occupations

Aurora — Many of the graduates of Aurora high school have already made up their decisions for the future. Bound for University of Toronto: Juna Caulfield, Ronald Crabtree, Douglas Doherty, Keith Kyle (Dentistry), Archie McCallum, Ross Donovan, Ian Scott, Gordon Lee, Carol Underhill, Leslie Oliver. Mary Langley will attend Guelph OAC; Donna Wilson will be at college in the U.S.A.; Murray Oliver will attend the Ontario College of Art; Terry Usher will attend Royal Military College and Arthur Ethridge will also be on a course sponsored by the department of national defence. Blake Lloyd has joined the R.C.A.F. and John Hambley has joined the staff of the T. Eaton Co.

Headed for Toronto Normal School are Clara Campbell, Bernice Copson, Ruth Knowles, Isabel Dunning. Dale King, returning to studies after active service, will also attend Toronto Normal School.

FINISHES SECOND

Aurora — Canada's Pride, owned by Lorne A. Cousins, finished second in the saddle pony class at the C.N.E. last week.

Lions Contribute $100 To Greenwood Fund

Newmarket — With a contribution of $100 from the Newmarket Lions club, the Allan Greenwood fund has reached a total of $1,670 with more contributions to acknowledge. The contribution was announced at the club's first meeting of the season.

In the meantime, arrangements are nearing completion to put the fund into Canada Bonds, the income and capital to be administered in the boy's name to ensure him an education despite his handicap by Town Clerk Wesley Brooks and Editor John Meyer.

Mrs. Maude Hodgkinson Welcomed As Clerk

Aurora — Mrs. Maude Hodgkinson officially took over the new post as clerk of the Sixth Division Court on Tuesday when the fall sitting was held in Aurora. On behalf of the members of the bar, T. A. M. Hulse extended best wishes and congratulations to Mrs. Hodgkinson and was seconded by L. C. Lee. Judge Frank McDonagh extended greetings on behalf of the Bench and paid tribute to the memory of the late Major W. H. Taylor, "I am happy to see that this responsible position remains in the Taylor family. I am certain Mrs. Hodgkinson will bring as much credit to the clerkship as did her late father, who was outstanding in his work," said Judge McDonagh.

C Squadron Joins In Unionville Service

Aurora — C squadron, 25th Armored Regiment journeyed to Unionville on Sunday to take part in the dedication of the Unionville Memorial Cairn. The squadron, under the command of Major James Westhead, took part in the march-past with colors flying. There were two Churchill tanks and four vehicles on parade. Training has been resumed each Thursday night at Aurora armory and the unit will welcome any new recruits.

RESUMES TEACHING

Newmarket — After a delayed school reopening Miss Marjorie H. Rogers is resuming her work on the Waterdown public school staff. During the summer she took a teacher's course in music at Jarvis Collegiate, Toronto. Miss Rogers spent the latter part of the summer camping near Huntsville and visiting friends in Elmville. In addition to her school duties last year Miss Rogers prepared and passed the University course in English at Hamilton.

First Floor Put Down At Low Rent Housing Site

Newmarket — The first floor was put down this week at the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation low rental housing project on Eagle St. The methods used by the Carter Construction company, which has the contract, are a marvel of mass production technique.

The steps taken in building these houses suggest that the company is building one very large house instead of 50 small ones. First of all the cellars were excavated by a "digger" for all houses to have cellars, and trenches were dug for foundations for those without.

As soon as the excavations are made for the cellars and foundations, the carpenters and masons begin. The foundations for houses with cellars are being poured and the others are being constructed from cement blocks.

While work is in progress on the foundations, another group of carpenters is engaged in building the houses in sections. The centre of operations for the carpenters is a large construction shack which is the power unit for all carpentry work. There the carpenters assemble the frames from pre-cut lumber so that the part of the house above the foundation need only be assembled in sections on the completed foundation.

The project is the same as a district for the time being as practically all the labor has been secured from the town and district. Seventeen employees' cars were lined up at the edge of the project site and one look at the field where the houses are coming up like cabbages will tell the onlooker that it has taken up a big supply of labor. From a distance it would seem that a legion of ants had undertaken to dig a community on the hillside.

This week the Newmarket water works department has been laying pipes down along the new streets.

It's a far cry from Newmarket's pioneers who hewed their homes out of trees on their own properties.

Homes Re-Assessed Now Tackle Main St.

Newmarket — Assessors completed the collection of data for assessing all residential properties in Newmarket last week and work has started on the Main St. properties. The project was ordered by the town council to correct inequalities of assessment.

Each house is classified and all information about its facilities and construction is reviewed by a board of five assessors when the final decision is reached on the assessment of the house.

The board meets twice every week. The five assessors are B. W. Hunter, Harold Eaton, Joseph Waterhouse, Ross Howlett and Frank Doyle.

One assessor estimated that it would be more than a month before the town assessment would be completed. He said that it takes a lot of time to obtain the measurements and particulars for the Main St. business properties. Last week the pace was approximately half a block a day.

With a complete card system for every piece of residential and commercial property in town, the assessment board can get every detail at a glance when the times comes for owners to appeal their assessments. There have been some marked changes in the assessment of certain properties already with some greater, and some less than their former assessments.

TO ADVISE VETS

Aurora — Robert Reid of the Service Bureau, Ontario Command, Canadian Legion, will be in Aurora on Monday, Sept. 20, from 11 a.m. to 12:30 noon, prepared to advise any ex-serviceman or woman on their problems. Mr. Reid will be at the old town hall. Secretary T. A. M. Hulse will be pleased to make an appointment.

LACK CEMENT

Newmarket — The road and bridge committee of the town council has found that it is not possible to build sidewalks on Lorne Ave. at the Stuart Scott school or on Davis Dr. because it is impossible to buy Canadian cement. Residents had previously requested that these sidewalks be built.

TRY-OUT WITH PHILLIES

Ken Broughton, former Newmarket junior hockey star, left Sunday for Galt to try out with the Philadelphia Rockets, Hart Manufacturing Co., where Ken is employed, has given him a three-week leave of absence.

LARGE RETURN

John Morrill, Second St., sowed a bag and a half of potatoes this spring and so far, he has dug 2 1/2 bags. The potatoes average 1 1/4 lbs. and those he has cut are sold all through.

TOWN GRANTS

Newmarket — The town council agreed to put through $200 to the Newmarket Citizens' band and $500 to the Recreation Commission on the 1948 grants at council meeting on Monday night.

Not Enough Books 'Exchange' Sale Delayed

Newmarket — Earlier this year the Home and School Association attempted to establish a used school book exchange but so few books were turned in that it has been impossible to hold the proposed sale. However, many people still think it a worthwhile idea. A monthly appeal will be made throughout the year at the meetings for used school books with the hope that sufficient books will be forthcoming to enable the association to establish the exchange. The few books which have been turned in to date will be held until that time.

If such an exchange can be established students would be able to purchase their school books at a great saving. The money raised would be used for Home and School projects.

Billiard Parlors Placed Under Licensing By-Law

Newmarket — A by-law to license and regulate the operation of billiard and pool tables in Newmarket was passed at town council meeting on Monday night. The annual fee for licenses included $20 for the first billiard or pool table and $10 for each extra table. The by-law outlaws profanity, betting and boys under 16 in a billiard room. Time of business to be from 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 p.m.

PURCHASE FARM

Newmarket — Dr. Arkinstall and his wife, Dr. Margaret Arkinstall, Kapuskasing, have purchased the farm formerly owned by Will Wrightman, R. R. 2, Newmarket, on the road between Sharon and Holland Landing. Dr. Arkinstall is retiring this fall as head of the hospital at Kapuskasing.

MOVES HIS OFFICE

Newmarket — C. Gerald Wainman has moved his optometry office from his former store to a new office beside Loblaw's. For 22 years a jeweller and optometrist in Newmarket, Mr. Wainman sold his jewelry business some months ago to Robert Yates and gave his full time to optometry. His new office will be equipped with the latest instruments and facilities.

CONVALESCING

Newmarket — John Hines, Gray Coach Lines supervisor, is convalescing following a month's illness. He expects to be back at work soon.

TO PAINT OR NOT TO PAINT

Newmarket — A motion to accept two tenders to paint and repair the interior of the town hall and also to paint the exterior of the town clerk's office ended in a discussion as to whether the town should spend the money at the present time when there are so many other things to be done, at the council meeting Monday.

Cut-off Threatens As Hydro Saving Still Far From Need

Newmarket — The hydro quota of 21,200 kilowatt hours given Newmarket and effective last Tuesday, is a long way from being achieved, according to hydro consumption figures for Tuesday and Wednesday. Consumption Monday was 28,200 kwh., on Tuesday (first day of the reduction) 26,100 kwh., and Wednesday, 25,000 kwh.

Hydro officials from Toronto are meeting in Newmarket this afternoon to consider steps to achieve the quota. "We have no choice about this matter," Fred S. Thompson, hydro chairman in Newmarket, said this morning. "We must either achieve the quota voluntarily or pull the switches until the saving is made."

Industries, and Main St. merchants have been contacted personally and the school teachers have been asked to impress upon their pupils the need for power saving.

The power shortage in Ontario has come from the lack of water in Ottawa river, reducing the amount of power that can be manufactured. The shortage is expected to continue indefinitely. It is further aggravated by heavy expansion of industrial and residential facilities.

"If we must cut off the power to accomplish this saving, it will have to be done at a time to do the most good," said Mr. Thompson. "We don't relish the prospect, but we have no choice. Every saving that can be made will lessen the chance of a cut-off. It depends upon the consumer if the power will be cut off and for how long."

Now Cabinet Appointee Attended School In Aurora

Aurora — The appointment of the three Pearson boys, Lester, Marmaduke, the eldest named after the grandfather, a Methodist parson, and Vaughan, new resident in Toronto.

There are a few Aurora residents who recall attending school with Lester and his brothers. As a young man, Mr. Pearson made several trips back to Aurora. Rev. Edmund Pearson was noted in addition to his preaching for his baseball playing and he pitched for the Aurora ball club on more than one occasion as well as taking part in other sports.

Assist Band On C.N.E. Trip

Newmarket — Printed below is a list of donations to the Newmarket Citizens' Band, the sum of which paid their expenses to the Canadian National Exhibition band contests where they placed fourth in competition with city and military bands. In acknowledging the contributions, J. O. Little said that it was felt that it was not fair to the members of the band to lose a day's pay and face other expenses, and the collection was used to defray these costs. "Money collected was more than enough to defray the travelling expenses but we still need more money to assist in getting new instruments and repairing those we have," said Mr. Little. "The town council gives us the bandmaster, but we ask the citizens to assist in meeting the cost of instruments," he said.

He expressed the appreciation of the band for the support given them and said that "given the financial support of the town, the band will bring home the bacon."

Please keep in mind Friday afternoon, Sept. 24, when Miss Edna Jacques, poetess and lecturer of Toronto, will be guest speaker at Vandorf community hall. This is a special meeting of the Women's Institute and all women of the community and neighboring Institutes are cordially invited.

BROWNHILL

This is one of the finest times of the year with almost every kitchen filled with fine aromas of ketchup, chili sauce, peaches, etc. Although apples seem to have become a scarcity, the housewives are getting along in fine style and pickling is going on as usual.

We are glad to see Mr. Amos York is able to be out.

Mr. Stute Sedore is in a critical condition at Christie Street hospital. We do hope he is soon much better and home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Sedore have taken up housekeeping at Island Grove. We wish them much success in this new venture.

Now all the mothers can get back to the usual routine of school days and most of them seem to be quite happy about it. Miss Eva King and Miss Georgina Rose are attending high school at Newmarket. We hope they will both be the success they want to be.

Mr. and Mrs. Les. Nelson and Mr. Earl Cuthbertson spent a few days at Picton, returning home about September 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Sedore and family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilnot King.

Mrs. Francis Sedore had a number of callers on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur King took Mrs. Sedore to visit at the home of Mrs. Stute Sedore.

We are sorry to learn Mr. Lyle McNertney is leaving the farm.

Mr. Tom Allen has rented his farm. We hope the new residents will be happy in our community.

We are glad Rev. N. A. Bosko was able to be at church on Sunday after his painful ordeal of a misplaced vertebrae.

There will be church as usual. Try to come to our services. We have a lovely Sunday-school which most of the children attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Rose are leaving Brownhill and going to Toronto. We will miss them very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rose have returned home after spending a short while in the north picking blueberries.

Mr. George Leitch has a new car.

Mrs. Flossie Comer visited at Brownhill one evening last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Miller have been spending a few days in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Les. Miller visited at the home of Mrs. Sarah Miller.

Mr. Kenneth Williamson is home for a few days.

MOUNT ALBERT

The September meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the community hall on Thursday and those who did not attend missed a very fine program devoted to Historical Research and in charge of Mrs. H. Harman and Mrs. Reg. Willbee. The ladies are planning to cater to a banquet for the baseball boys and have been serving at a booth for the ball games where they have made around $40 for the Institute funds.

Mrs. H. Harman as usual gave an excellent paper on the history of the community. She had a large map made of the farms with the names of those on them in 1860 and those now living on them. She had an atlas of the County of Ontario, 1878, and who lived on each farm at that time. These early settlers had to go to Whitby for supplies.

An old map of York County of 1860 also showed who lived on every farm. This was recently found when an old building was torn down on the farm now occupied by Mr. Walter Case on the Centre Road. Mrs. Harold Broderick gave the history of their farm just south of the village. It was where the first settlers, the Birchard family, who carried all they brought with them on their backs in 1815, settled. They had to go to Holland Landing for supplies.

The farm was later sold to a Mr. Fletcher in 1840 and in 1892 to Mr. Broderick, grandfather of the present owner, Harold Broderick, whose son Billie, aged six years, is the fourth generation of the name on the farm.

The little park on the hill was the first site of land given for a church and school and must always remain as public property.

Mrs. Willbee gave current events and Mrs. R. Cupples and Mrs. W. Rate provided music. A social half-hour was enjoyed.

Miss Todd of Kingston has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Anglin.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Pearson and Joan spent Sunday at Oshawa with Mrs. Annie Pearson who left on Tuesday for a trip to Vancouver to visit her son, Clarence Pearson.

Mr. Chas. Handsford, Midland, and Mr. Sam Handsford, Toronto, were in town on Saturday after attending the funeral of their sister, Mrs. W. Moore, at Sandford.

Mr. Charlie Peterson was taken to Sunnybrook hospital last week for observation and treatment.

Mr. Ken Wagg, Niagara-on-the-Lake, was in town on Monday last.

Mr. Will Lunau, a former resident of the village and now living at Jackson's Point, was taken to Wellesley hospital in Toronto for observation and treatment. Mr. Lunau has been ill for some months.

A large crowd filled the park on Monday evening to watch the game between Hope and Mount Albert, with a score of 11-6 in favor of the home team. This is the third year that Mount Albert has won out. We'll leave the details to the sports editor.

Misses Florence Bennett, Mary Sunter, and Nancy Purdon of Toronto spent the weekend with Miss Etta Stokes.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Robertson returned from their honeymoon and spent the weekend with their parents.

The W.M.S. of the United church held its September meeting in the church schoolroom on Monday evening. Mrs. W. H. Theaker gave the study book which is on 50 years in China, "West of the Gorges." They are planning for a missionary Sunday later.

The schools have re-opened with a large attendance and the bus going to Newmarket high school has also many more new students this term.

What's the matter with having the weeds cut away from our sidewalks? Some places one can scarcely walk.

Mrs. Guy Williamson left on Tuesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Bruce Davidson, at Petawawa.

Mrs. Harry Griffith left on Tuesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Gordon Johnson, at Chalk River.

Mr. Dan Wright is the new shoe repairman, having purchased Mr. Carr's business. Mr. Carr has moved to Cannington to go into business there.

Miss Leek has improved her store building with a coat of paint inside and out.

Mrs. Ross, Sr., has returned from a few weeks' vacation in Toronto and Muskoka.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan McInnes, Toronto, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Jennie Watts on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Palmateer, Pickering, were Sunday visitors of their grandmother, Mrs. Cain.

QUEENSVILLE

Miss Donna Linakill, Willowdale, spent the weekend with her cousin, Miss M. Morton.

Mrs. Nellie Branch, Mrs. Chas. Hart and daughter, Penny, returned home to Point Ann after spending a week with Mrs. Branch's sister, Mrs. S. Pepper.

Mr. Robert Forrest returned home to Toronto after spending a week of his vacation with Mr. and Mrs. S. Pepper.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ebarall of Toronto were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. Pepper, Sunday, Aug. 29.

School Rates Jump In East Gwillimbury

The monthly meeting of East Gwillimbury council was held in Sharon hall September 4. The members were all present.

The following tax rates have been set for 1948: general school, 6 mills; roads, 10 mills; relief and hospitalization, 1 6/10 mills; general purpose, 1 5/10 mills; York county, 5 1/10 mills; county high school, 2 1/10 mills; Mount Albert, 12 mills; Queensville, 19 mills; Sharon, 9 1/10 mills; Holland Landing, 8 mills.

The local school rates are from 40 to 75 percent higher than in former years. In one school section the total cost of education is 34 8/10 mills. The total tax rate under the jurisdiction of the council is up 1/2 mill.

The council has ordered that the cost of cutting weeds on privately-owned land shall be charged against the property on the tax roll.

The road superintendent presented a summary of the road accounts from January 1 to September 1. The council expressed its approval and ordered that the road superintendent forward an application for the government subsidy to the department of highways.

The clerk was instructed to make application to the public trustee to have the interest on the Glover and Evans endowment fund made payable to the township, and that an account be set up from the interest for the care of the Glover cemetery near Ravenshoe.

A by-law was passed for the purpose of establishing the Queensville park grounds, as a permanent park and athletic field under the Community Halls Act.

MAPLE HILL

Rev. W. Large preached a fine sermon on Sunday entitled, "The Secret of Unfailing Joy," in Maple Hill church. The attendance at Sunday-school is growing.

At the Young People's meeting last Friday night, officers for the coming season were elected as follows: pres., Mrs. Large; vice-pres., Mrs. McGill; devotion-al, Shirley Campbell; sec., Betty Goode; treas., Don Gillion; pianist, Shirley Campbell; social, Mrs. Fred Knights and Lloyd Pollard; usher, Harold Knights.

Mr. Bruce Knights has accepted a position at Langstaff. The children were happy to get back to school last week. Miss Rideout, Newmarket, is the teacher.

But a Fine Place to Shop

The business men of Newmarket realize that they live by service—and they practise just that, day in and day out, the year 'round. The other day a gentleman (a little surprised, but none-the-less pleased) was exclaiming—"I was unable to find an item in one of Newmarket's stores, but the proprietor was kind enough to direct me to another place of business. This happened twice—both times the store which couldn't furnish the needed item, sent me to a competitor. I obtained what I wanted at the third place, and I'm singing the praises of those who were interested enough to suggest where I could buy my article."

'Featured' At York County Hospital

It must be the heritage of printer's ink in the veins of our son that he should chose to be issued on press day. How else to explain his birth on a Thursday morning? Possibly he felt that Thursday was already a day of confusion and the circumstances attending his own arrival would be absorbed by a concern with getting the final four pages of The Era and Express to press. Whatever the reasoning behind the event, he came, was seen and conquered.

John Christopher is temporarily occupying a cubicle in the nursery of York County hospital where he is viewed nightly by his father at window No. 3. The nursery has three large windows looking upon the corridor. The curtains are drawn except for command performances. Then the nurse unveils a window and holds the child up for the male parent to gaze at from the other side. The nightly performances at these windows surpasses the best vaudeville, even in its golden age.

As a rule, the infant thoroughly resents being aroused from his nest of blankets, and is no doubt further enraged by the sight of his male parent peering er, "you'd think their sons were expected to be ready to shave when they are born."

When the curtains are drawn at the nursery windows and the infants restored to the beds, there is a tendency among the male parents to exchange information, and then the corridor echoes with the exchange of vital statistics. It sounds rather like a meeting of a fishing club. Weight and length are indicated in the same way and there is the same tendency towards exaggeration. All the conversation lacks is that familiar introduction: "I hooked him with a No. 8 spoon on a clear day off the reeds."

As the talk wears on, reminiscences are taken out of hiding, dusted off and presented for the approval of the others. There is a father who is still remarking on what he considers a narrow escape from the law of averages. His second child was born after a set of twins by a neighbor, and followed another set of twins by a close friend. He has been temporarily hushed by a fellow parent who had the same experience only instead of twins, it was triplets.

Unionville Ladies Win Fashion Show

The ladies of Unionville W.I. won first prize at the C. N.E. in the Early Canadian Fashion Show. The winning group for Unionville represented a bridal trio. Another group was a pioneer woman, with a gown 105 years old. An added feature which did not enter into the judging was the modelling of a gown worn by Queen Victoria. This gown belongs to the Toogoods, having come from an aunt of Mr. Toogood who was in the wardrobe service of the Queen.

Letters To The Editor

Letters to the editor are always appreciated. The "letters" column is the reader's forum.

'SOFT-HANDED IDEALIST'

The Editor: There used to be a saying that went like this: "Everybody thinks they can run a restaurant and a newspaper." I would like to modernize that and add "and a farm." For, in the past five years, every time one looks in the paper there is some well meaning soft-handed idealist throwing out good advice.

I am of the opinion that your recent article on the top soil in Fairley Lake (Sept. 2 issue) is somewhat in that category. There is a basic economic reason back of the farmer's apparent negligence. It is, plainly speaking, that food has been too cheap and plentiful. I remember my father telling how they used to carry earth up from the valleys in Switzerland, to replenish the Alps, but food there was scarce, and the population getting big. Now the case in Canada has been the reverse and even today much of the farmer's products are selling below the cost of production.

Therefore you will not find farmers worrying about soil conservation; and the alternative is either government subsidy or action. While I am on this subject I would also mention that the sewage waste is another big factor. This will ultimately have to be purified and returned to the land. It seems remarkable that the huge cities on the lakes let so much potential fertilizer go to waste, but once more we return to the factor, "cheap food."

All the same, I am glad to see people taking an interest in such a vital subject, and trust that some action will come of it. Conrad J. Hauser, Sharon, Sp. 5.

Experimental Farms For Costs

By JOHN ATKINS

From "The Scene from Shingwauk Farm"

No one knows the average cost of producing food on Canadian farms but Canada goes ahead with food price controls and compulsory marketing schemes as if those who are given power over producers and their neighbors, knew what they were doing.

The best informed economists have not sufficient facts for sound cost conclusions. The best estimates of farm costs are a rough guess, too rough for arbitrary and compulsory regulations by which producers are pushed around like chess men.

Before Canadians go any further with compulsory schemes based on guess-work, the governments which use their democratic powers to create autocratic commissions should find out by actual test what food production costs are in each of the various regions of Canada.

Alongside every experimental farm devoted to scientific research, a farm devoted to economic research should be operated by the government. All of the regulations applied to workers by bodies to which the governments have given power, should apply to all of the workers on an economic research farm.

The management and office staff of such a farm should work the civil service 36½-hour week and enjoy all the privileges of civil servants. The other farm workers should work a 40-hour week with time-and-a-half for overtime after eight hours work in any day, and double time for work done on unscheduled working days such as Saturdays, Sundays and statutory holidays. The 36½-hour week workers should have the customary three weeks' civil service holiday with pay in which to recover from the almost unbearable strain of their duties. The 40-hour week farm workers, for whom the strain of work is relieved by physical labor, might be given two weeks' holidays with pay until such time as the scientific and economic researchers could establish the perfect holiday period for these people. All the conveniences and recreational activities provided for urban workers should be provided for farm workers.

The costs established by the economic research farms should be published regularly for the benefit of the consuming public who might be brought to realize that the cost of producing food under wage and working conditions comparable to their own is about twice present prices. During the course of the experiments all Canadian farmers should be freed from all restrictions and regulations except those affecting health and the grading of products for the identification of quality.

While the facts regarding the cost of food production under urban working conditions were being established, uncontrolled farm people might work 60 or 84 hours a week as their work now requires, thus securing sufficient returns to keep them producing. As prices rose some of them might do well. Such conditions might attract more industrious people to agriculture thus, ultimately, reducing the cost of food as production costs were lowered by better methods and the use of better equipment.

It's Up To The Consumers

Newmarket must reduce its power consumption by 20 percent. That is the order of the Ontario Hydro Electric Commission, made necessary by the acute shortage of power throughout the province. The saving can be accomplished in two ways, by voluntary action on the part of every householder, merchant and industry, or by simply pulling a switch and shutting off power until the saving is effected.

Last season, Newmarket was able to avoid a complete shutdown by voluntary saving. At that time, however, the reduction was only ten percent. Now it is 20 percent, and in the intervening months, the demand for power has grown. However, the Newmarket commission is hopeful that the saving can be accomplished voluntarily despite these handicaps. But to do so will require the utmost vigilance of all.

Whatever the cause of the hydro shortage—industrial expansion, a dry fall, political bungling, or a combination of the three—the thing is upon us, and the only way its impact can be lessened is by voluntary effort. We may not like it, but there it is. Every effort must be bent towards reducing our daily consumption of power. Even if this effort is not enough to make the complete saving, it will make the period the switches must be pulled that much shorter.

And if the switches do have to be pulled, we have the word of the Newmarket commission that there will be ample warning, and the power will be cut off at a time when it will inconvenience the least number of citizens.

'Samplers' Have Romantic History

By ETHEL WILLSON TREWHELLA, PART II

Historical research has established the fact that the first English Embroidery Book was really foreign. It is entitled "New and Singular Patternes and Workes of Linneen Serving for Patternes to make all sorts of Lace Edgings and Cut Workes. Newly invented for the Profit and Contentment of Ladies, Gentlewomen and others that are desirous of this Art. By Vincentio. Printed by John Wolfe, 1599."

Quite a contemporary influence of foreign tapestry design was discernible in samplers of this period where across the water Louis the Fourteenth had established his famous factory for the manufacture of this textile of kings, and foremost artists were devoting their energies for the guidance of the weavers.

That the sampler was conceded an important factor in the education and employment of children and young women—only in its later stages was the exploitation of youthful industry universal—it is evidenced by reference made by writers of the early period. In Act 3, Scene 2, of Midsummer Night's Dream, and in Titus Andronicus, Act 2, Scene 4, Shakespeare makes specific mention of it. Also in 1834 Milton refers to it:

"And checks of sorry grain will serve to ply
The sampler, and to tear the housewife's wool."

The sampler has been considered of sufficient importance to have been mentioned in bequests.

To many a forgotten craftswoman this creative urge was a creative expression of a beautiful life, her art showing the delineated influence of her environment, which was as varied as her personality. Too, it provided a graphic illustration of her latent energy.

Flourished for 250 Years
The sampler flourished for about 250 years, but was accorded its palmyest popularity from the middle of the 17th century in England to the early 19th century in America. The size and shape changed from the long and narrow type to the broader and shorter exhibit of great-grandmother's time—the colors became more vivid, metal threads were eliminated, and the cross-stitch, or sampler stitch, became the accepted stitch. Some of the comparative modern samplers were decorated with beadwork. An outstanding characteristic of the old samplers is the marvelous retention of color in the dyes employed. Such a pride in lettering was maintained that some of these early pieces of the craft are color poems. These dyes were mostly of vegetable origin, old yellows from oak, hickory and onion skins, reds of cochineal from Mexico—madder familiar to the ancient peoples of Phly and Herodotus—blue from India's indigo, green from oak bark, drab from tea and coppers—all secrets of utensils of copper and brass handed down through the generations. An old writer of Jacobean time has described the old sampler as a colorful pot-pourri of history:

"Collected with much praise and industry
From scorched Spaine and freezing Muscovie,
From fertile France and pleasant Italy,
From Poland, Sweden, Denmark, Germanie,
And some of these rare patternes have been set
Beyond the boundes of faithless Mahomet,
From spacious China and those Kingdoms East,
And from great Mexico, the Indies West,
Thus are these workes farre fetched and dearly bought
And consequently good for Indes's thought."

Material Used
As a background for the stitches a woollen canvas was sometimes used, though linen continued as the chief fabric, oftentimes of a venous mustard shade, while later toward the end of the 18th century a glazed

Steam Merry-go-round For Big Fair

The changes being made to the front of the Newmarket cemetery are a decided improvement, according to The Era and Express files of 25 years ago. The picket fence has been removed in sections and replaced the tottering fence north of the entrance gates. The foundation pillars for the new iron fence are constructed and the iron fencing has arrived. The gates are expected this week. The construction of the fence is proceeding, but the non-arrival of the cap stones is delaying the work.

Miss Ruby Moss left this week to enroll at the Margaret Eaton School of Expression, Toronto.

Good market last Saturday. Lots of butter and eggs and prices on the rise. Eggs were 30 to 35 cents a doz., butter 35-38 cents a lb., peaches were selling at 75, 85 and 90 cents a basket. Pickling cucumbers sold at 50 cents per hundred and green peppers were three for five cents.

W. A. Brunton is moving into his new house on Church St. this week.

An enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mrs. J. J. Smith, Botsford St., on Wednesday when her daughter, Miss Josephine Smith, gave a special tea for her Sunday-school class and teacher Miss G. Mollenhauer, whom they presented with a signet ring. Miss Mollenhauer is leaving for Toronto on Monday.

Word has been received of the safe arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Morton at San Juan.

The second lot of new desks arrived at the high school last Saturday. It was necessary to purchase more typewriters and prices were firm. Butter was 18 cents a lb. and eggs were 13 cents a doz. Poultry is beginning to come in more freely. Dressed chickens were from 50 to 55 cents a pair. A good quantity of potatoes was offered and sold at 30 and 40 cents a bag. Large onions were 20 cents a peck.

Father Morris arrived here on Wednesday evening after a trip to Ireland. He was met at the depot by prominent members of the congregation and given a hearty welcome home. Later in the evening the town band gave him a serenade.

S. H. Griffiths met with an accident on Thursday evening of last week and had a miraculous escape. He was driving near home in a sulky and the horse took fright and darted up the side of the bank. The wheel caught a post and Mr. Griffiths was thrown under the horse's feet. Mrs. Griffiths saw the accident and she seized the animal by the bridle and prevented her husband from being trampled.

Nearly everything in the shape of game is now open to the possessor of a firearm. The open season will extend to December 15.

Rev. Walker, Louisville, was visiting H. Pretty last week. They had not met for over 25 years.

The sawmill in Mr. Armitage's swamp, Glenville, has commenced running day and night. Miss Marion Perkins left on Monday to attend Business College in the city.

gauze, known as tiffany, was in evidence. Borders, too, appeared, and the alphabetical decoration was much elaborated, with texts and verses not found in the earlier specimens—some were composed entirely of the Lord's Prayer, the Ten Commandments, or even whole chapters of the Bible. Much of the serious sentiment then appearing, probably was owing to the religious fervor which was sweeping England. Along about 1725 pictorial effects came into general use, such as domestic scenes, trees, flowers in pots, birds, genealogical records, often with a landscape at the lower end or across the middle. Some designs were historic and delightfully depict incidents of the period. This art at this time developed into an industry, and to teach the alphabet and stitching became a part of the curriculum in the schools for young ladies, where young imaginations, assisted by clever fingers, soon became adept with canvas and needle. At the bottom they proudly worked their names, with age and date, and the name of the school. In the home little girls, sitting beside their mothers, put in their daily hours at the tedious task of stitching their samplers.

Lengthy Tradition

Of long lineage is the cult of the sampler, and frequently came into being because of necessity; some are so elaborate they are prized mainly as evidence of the creator's skill. Among collectors are to be found very unique examples of this primitive art, the colors of which are so delightfully blended and finely executed that it is difficult to discern the stitches, others are not so finely worked but instead show that the artist had been of an interesting personality. Some have been the work of famous people, others have been the effort of almost infants. There are three samplers worked by the Bronte sisters, similar in design, filled entirely with quotations from the Book of Proverbs. These are encircled with conventional borders somewhat like the Greek Key, but characterized by a depressing lack of ornament and a monotony of color. Charlotte was 13, Emily 11, and Anne 10 years. 1829 was the date at the bottom of Charlotte's. It is safe to assume that environment may often be suspected.

In 1712 Elizabeth Clements, at the age of six years, worked her sampler at the Foundling School of St. Clement Danes. One dated 1686 and worked by Elizabeth Creasy, has a background of yellow and is made very interesting by having bright colors of the embroidery at the top and a section of the cutwork at the bottom. While Mary Postle, in 1747, produced one of the early bordered samplers, a very ornamental border surrounds a comparatively insignificant centre.

A sampler that is outstanding because of its graceful proportioning of parts and its harmonious color arrangement, is one worked in 1775 by Catherine Tweedell who later became the grandmother of John Ruskin. It also bears the name of Jean Ross, a sister of the Arctic explorer.

Salem Exhibit

Exhibited in Salem, Massachusetts, is a sampler worked by Anne Gower. This must have been brought from England for she married Governor Endicott before coming to America. Another was wrought by Lora Standish, daughter of Miles Standish, and is in Pilgrim's Hall, Plymouth. The earliest dated American sampler bears the names of Miles and Abigail Fleetwood, 1654. Here is the inscription:

"In prosperity friends will be plenty,
But in adversity not one in twenty."

This is unusual in that it bears the names of both husband and wife. This is thought to have reference to reverses of Miles Fleetwood and his relationship to Cromwell.

Another famous American sampler has embroidered upon it Robert Burns' Grace Before Meat.

"Some men have meat who cannot eat,
And some have none who need it,
But we have meat and we can eat
And so the Lord be thanked."

Sampler Comes to U.S.A.
With the coming of the English to America was brought the sampler and its art. One can but try to visualize the faraway gleam in the eyes of the colonial woman, when with letters months apart and neighbors scattered, she turned to the precious hoarded products of the clearing and the loom to weave into her sampler dreams that were both nostalgic and tender.

In a tenderly pathetic description Miss Milford tells of the decadence of the sampler in a sketch, Lucy, in Our Village. It is not probable that ever again the sampler will be used to teach the young idea, and the passing of the years will relegate them but more definitely into the category of antique interest, but all history is not found in books, now does all romance lie between the pages of fiction. These treasures of a bygone period are dramatic with the glow of a living romance that colors

Pine Orchard School Fair Well Received Friday

Pine Orchard—Some time ago, the school board of Pine Orchard decided to sponsor a school fair. At first many setbacks and difficulties were encountered but those interested worked and hoped for the best. During the summer vacation the school children were busy building bird houses, caring for plots 10' x 10' containing five different kinds of vegetables and two varieties of flowers. The fair was held on Friday afternoon, Sept. 10, at the school.

The exhibits were attractively displayed in the junior room. Miss N. Holladay, Newmarket, and Mrs. Gould, Aurora, judged baking, fire prevention posters, sewing, public speaking and recitations. Mr. E. Brammer, Newmarket, judged vegetables, flowers and bird houses.

Public speaking and recitation competition was held in the senior room on account of rain. Pupils of the senior room delighted the guests with two choruses, Bells of St. Mary's and Autumn Leaves. The pupils who took part in the public speaking and recitations deserve great credit for their efforts.

Finally the judges' decisions were made known, prize winners announced and prize money paid. Mr. Ross Armitage acted as chairman for the day. The school trustees, Messrs. William Lundy, Albert Boake and Sam Gibney, teachers Mr. L. Heaslip and Miss Betty Hope and pupils are to be congratulated on the success of the fair.

Potatoes (school fair garden), Mildred Pyle, Patsy Boake, David Portingell; carrots (home garden), Miriam Boake, Vera Styke, Hilary Davidson; carrots (school fair garden), Beth Johnson, Donald Johnson, Bob Mavers; beets (home garden), Vera Styke, John Bibby, Hilary Davidson; beets (school fair garden), Patsy Boake, Beth Johnson, Donald Johnson;

None of the pupils were old enough to remember the good old days of the department of agriculture school fairs so everything was a new experience.

HOPE
Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Walker and family visited Mr. and Mrs. George Walker at Victoria Harbor on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Stevens, and Mr. Will Andrews, Queensville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Morley Andrews.

IN MEMORIAM

Atkinson—In loving memory of my dear wife, Mary Kathleen Atkinson, who passed away September 13, 1946.
I cannot clasp your hand Kay, dear;
Your face I cannot see;
But let this little token
Tell that I still remember thee.
Fondly remembered by her husband George.

Bishop—In loving memory of our dear dad, Alfred Bishop, who passed away September 9, 1943, also our dear mother, Susannah Bishop, who passed away September 13, 1934.
It's loneliness at home without you, mother and dad,
And sad the weary way;
For life is not the same to us,
Since you both were called away.
So you who have a mother and dad
Cherish them with care;
You'll never know a heartache
Till you see their vacant chair.
Sadly missed and always remembered by family.

Haines—In loving memory of a dear son and brother, Capt. John W. Haines, who passed away in Christ St. hospital, September 16, 1916.
As angels keep their watch up there,
Please God, just let him know
That we down here do not forget,
We love him and miss him so.
Sadly missed and ever remembered by his mother, step-father and brothers.

Haines—In loving memory of a dear husband and daddy, Capt. John W. Haines, who passed away September 16, 1916.
He suffered on earth, he will suffer no more,
In the loved land of the blest;
Pain fled as he trod Heaven's brightest shore;
He left his peace and rest,
My lips cannot tell how I miss him,
My heart cannot tell what to say.
God only knows how I miss him,
In a home that is lonesome today.
Always remembered by wife Ruth and children, Johnnie, Marilyn, Nancie and Susan.

Knott—In loving memory of Ada Knott, who passed away September 19, 1932.
Oh we think of you dear mother,
And our hearts are filled with pain;
Oh this earth would be a Heaven
Could we hear your voice again.
Sixteen years have swiftly passed away,
But still we don't forget,
For in the hearts that loved you
Your memory lingers yet.
Lovingly remembered by husband and girls.

Hi-Lights of N.H.S.

By ELAINE ROBINSON

A week of another school term has quickly flown by, and we are once again bearing down to the grind of another year's work. Some new students along with all our new first-formers are getting acquainted with the pleasant life around N.H.S. Most of the first-year students have lost the fear they had upon entering high school for the first time and now wear a smile instead of a very puzzled look as they walk through the halls. We have a large attendance at the school this year, approximately the same as last year.

Along with our new students we have two new teachers this year, Miss Robins, our P.T. instructor, and Mr. Speers, who also teaches P.T. and mathematics. We hope they like our school as much as we do. Of course if it is too early to be thinking about new executives for our school societies, yet we can still keep in mind that nominations will be soon and now is the time to start thinking about whom you want in office for this year, so when nominations roll around you can add your candidate to the list.

A definite date hasn't been set for our inter-school track and field meet, but it will likely be in a few weeks. We notice the P.T. classes beginning their jumps and runs in preparation for the big day. We won the Eckardt cup last year in competition with high schools from Aurora and Richmond Hill, so maybe we will be lucky enough to keep it in our school for another year.

Yesterday, after school, we noticed the boys gathered at the side of our school in deep discussion with Mr. Speers. Upon inquiring, we found it to be the first rugby practice of the season. It really sounds good to hear that it won't be long until we shall have our first rugby game against one of our rival schools. Most of last year's players have finished school so we will have quite a change in our team this year. Let's hope they are as good as last year's team. Maybe better would be fine too.

KITCHEN SHOWER

Newmarket—Miss Jean McHale, bride of September 15, was the guest of honor at a kitchen shower held on Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hugo. Miss McHale received many useful and attractive gifts.

Tells Of Relief Work Done In India

Newmarket—Mrs. Francis Starr was the guest speaker at a joint meeting of the three women's organizations of Trinity United church on September 14 when the afternoon W.M.S., the Evening Auxiliary and the Women's Association gathered in the Sunday-school room. Mrs. Starr spoke of her work in India and told of the great famine and distress among the refugees. As a nurse, Mrs. Starr was concerned in the establishing of a new hospital. Miss Violet Curtis provided the music by playing two accordion solos. There were over 100 present.

W.I. BAZAAR

Newmarket—The town hall will be the scene of the annual bazaar of the Women's Institute on Thursday, Sept. 23, from 2:30 to 6 p.m. A sale of home baking, fancy work and aprons will be held. There will be an agricultural booth and many other attractions.

SHOWER SEPTEMBER BRIDE

Newmarket—About 20 friends gathered on Monday night to shower Miss Helen Rose, bride of September 15. The hostesses of the evening were Mrs. Gordon Ough and Mrs. Austin Brammer with the miscellaneous shower being held at the latter's home.

FIRST MEETING

Newmarket—The Evening Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church held the first meeting of the season on September 16 at the home of Mrs. M. E. R. Boudreau. Mrs. Lloyd Smith presided. Mrs. Max Stiles gave a short review on how the Bible came to be written.

MOUNT PISGAH

The regular meeting of the Gormley Women's Institute has been postponed until Wednesday, Sept. 20. All members are invited to Snowball as a visiting institute on September 22. Anyone wishing transportation is requested to get in touch with the president or secretary. Keep in mind also the special meeting at Vaudorf community hall on September 24 when Miss Edna Jacques, poetess and lecturer, will be there to speak. All women in the community are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gillis, Toronto, had Sunday supper with the Brown family. Mrs. Acey, who has been visiting Mrs. Lund, Toronto, for a few days, came home with them.

Miss Ida Terry, Toronto, is spending a few days at the Terry home over the weekend and were Mr. and Mrs. Fanger and Mr. and Mrs. Richards, all of Buffalo, and Mr. and Mrs. Lohrke and daughter of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Botham and Ronald spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Monkman and family at Lansing.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blizard, Newmarket, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ellis and family visited relatives in St. Catharines on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gamble and family spent Saturday evening with Jack's mother, Mrs. Gamble, in Toronto.

Mr. Don Clarke, Calgary, who was stationed at Camp Borden during the war with Murray Brown, paid him a surprise visit on Sunday and talked over old times.

Mr. and Mrs. Deb. Baker and family had Sunday supper with Mr. and Mrs. John Hicks, Mount Albert.

Sunday, Sept. 20, will be Rally Day at Mount Pisgah United church. The service will be in the afternoon. Messrs. Ray Stephenson, Oscar Duncan, Forrester and Ralph Smith of this district and Jim Staley of Hamilton were on a motor tour of the Northern States over last weekend.

The Vaudorf Girls' Garden Achievement Day at Newmarket on Saturday.

ELMHURST BEACH

Rev. H. L. Puxley, Roches Point, is opening a Sunday-school at Jersey public school on Sunday, Sept. 19, at 11 a.m. This will be non-denominational and every child in the community is invited to attend. Miss Winnifred Milloy, Toronto, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Jack Hirst.

Mr. Fred Lockerbie has left on a motor trip to Montreal and from there up to Northern Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Jackson, Brampton, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stephens this week.

Mrs. Pigo and her two children are occupying the Anderson apartment until they are able to move into their new home in the community.

We are sorry to hear that both Mr. and Mrs. Muirhead are on the sick list and wish them a speedy recovery.

ZEPHYR

Miss Kathaleen Bartlett left on Wednesday of last week for training in the Western hospital. We all wish Kathaleen the best of enjoyment in her new work.

Miss Olive Meyers spent the weekend at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Galbraith spent last Thursday in Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. L. Profit, and Mr. and Mrs. B. Kester spent Sunday at the fruit district near Grimsby.

Mrs. James Galbraith spent last week in Weston.

Some of the ladies of the community attended the Barton-Duckworth and the Palmer-Martyn weddings in Uxbridge United church last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay McIntosh and family of Detroit spent a few days with Mr. McIntosh's sister, Mrs. C. Clark. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. West and family and Mrs. Shaddock of Toronto spent Sunday with their sister and daughter, Mrs. Chesley Clark and family.

Mrs. John Hulbert and Bobby Heath spent the weekend with Mrs. Bartlett and family.

Mr. Stewart Graham is spending a few weeks at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Pickering, Ruth and Donald of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Smith of Aurora, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brammar and Mrs. Wm. Dunn of Newmarket spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pickering and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Pickering, June and Wayne, of Whitby, visited Mrs. Pearl Pickering on Tuesday.

KESWICK

The evening auxiliary, W.M.S., will meet at the home of Mrs. Geo. Snelling, on Tuesday, Sept. 21. This will be a child study night. The hostesses are Mrs. Harry Shaw and Mrs. Edward Alder.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Marritt on the birth of daughter, September 8. Mr. and Mrs. Jeffries and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Harper, Port Perry, visited Mr. and Mrs. Ken. Boothby over the weekend.

KETTLEBY

The United church choir held their business meeting last Wednesday evening and were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Cragg. Officers are: pres., Mrs. W. Sabin; vice-pres., Mrs. N. Blatchford; leader, Mr. F. Curtis; organist, Mrs. H. Webster; sec., Miss Beulah Geer; treas., Mr. J. Archibald. Miss Ruby Wilson spent last week at Downsview with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mathewson, Stouffville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tucker, and little Miss Linda Mathewson returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Blackburn and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Webster, Betty, John and Sara Barradell, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry DeVries attended the Doane reunion at Midhurst Park Sunday.

The Baptist Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Harry Webster Wednesday, Sept. 15.

Tuesday, Sept. 7, Christ church Ladies' Guild held their monthly meeting in the parish hall. It was the very pleasant task of Mrs. Ross Black and Mrs. Ed. Haines to present Mr. Ed. Williams with a smoker's stand as a present from the church members in recognition of his long years of caretaking of the church and hall, a position he has been forced to give up because of ill-health. He also sang in the choir for a great many years and will be greatly missed but we hope he will worship with us for many years yet.

Mrs. J. Warren from England was a visitor at the meeting and told of the food situation there. She says they have enough food for health but very little variety. Two things she is enjoying here which are rare treats, are plenty of butter and ice cream.

The Harvest Thanksgiving service will be held on September 28 at Christ church. There will be both morning and evening services and the preacher will be a former rector, Rev. J. E. Gibson.

Service next Sunday, Sept. 19, will be at the usual hour of 9:45 a.m. at Christ church.

The flowers placed in the church on Sunday were in memory of a very dear member of the congregation who was called away September 12, Mrs. J. W. McLaughlin. Rev. F. V. Abbott spoke of her regular attendance and repeated her last words when suffering extreme pain, "Dear Heavenly Father help me to bear this pain and forgive all my sins, for Jesus' sake, Amen."

After the service, the sisters, which were her favorite flowers, were placed on her grave in Kettleby cemetery and the glad tidings were sent to Miss Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ball, Ottawa, visited Mr. Ball's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Ball, last week.

We were very glad to know Mrs. G. Crane is home again and wish her a speedy recovery.

The deepest sympathy of the whole community goes out to Rev. F. V. Abbott whose sister recently passed away. He received the news by cable from Jersey when he returned from his holidays.

—Miss Patricia Duncan left Tuesday to attend Toronto Normal school. Her brother, Donald, is attending St. Michael's College.

COUPLE TO MAKE HOME IN KESWICK

In Asbury West United church, Toronto, Rev. Garnet W. Lynd solemnized the double ring ceremony of Mary Alice Grace Swash, daughter of Roland H. Swash, and Clive Kershaw, Keswick, son of Mrs. D. Kershaw, Morse, Sask., and the late David Kershaw. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown with lace yoke embroidered with pearls, her shoulder-length veil being caught with a coronet of calla lilies. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and white baby mums.

Mrs. Doris M. Miller, Peterboro, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor in a dress of powder blue net over tulle with halo headress. Her flowers were lemon gladioli. Betty Swash wore a dress of shell pink with lace top and net skirt with halo headress of matching color. Floyd H. Kershaw was his brother's groomsmen. Leslie Kershaw and Clifford Swash were ushers.

At a reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Swash, Gresham Rd., Toronto, the mother of the bride received in a gown of blue silk jersey with navy accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses and baby mums. Mrs. Leslie Kershaw assisted wearing a gray ensemble with brown accessories and a corsage of roses. The bride's going away suit was royal blue with matching tam and brown accessories with a corsage of red roses and baby mums. Following a trip to North Bay the couple will reside in Keswick.

Johnston Family Has Annual Reunion Sept. 12

Newmarket — The annual reunion of the Johnston clan occurred Sunday, Sept. 12, and was doubly important as not only did it celebrate the get-together but also the birthdays of Andrew Frame and Bud Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnston, at whose residence on Gorham St. the fête took place.

A surprise shower was held for Yvonne Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnston, whose engagement to Wallace Turgeon of Leaside was announced recently. A permanent record of the reunion was made in the nature of colored pictures by A. Frame, who is an amateur photographer.

Guide Concert Shows Pageant Of Fashion

Newmarket — A pageant of fashion depicting the styles in clothes since 1450 was presented to a small but appreciative audience at St. Paul's parish hall on Monday night under the auspices of the Guide Local Association.

A duct by Marion and Margaret Winter was the first number on a short program presented by the Guides. Sunny Ewing played background music as the guests arrived for the concert.

A campfire scene with a tabloids based on the Guide laws and Indian songs completed the program. Thanks to the generous support of the Lions club, the candy sale held by the Guides proved most successful.

SMITH-EDWARDS

RITES AT ORILLIA

On September 1, at the home of the bride's sister, Miss Pearl Edwards, Orillia, decorated with gladioli, dahlias and Canterbury bells, Olive Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Edwards, Atherley, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Bruce Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Smith, Newmarket. Rev. F. W. Madden, Brechin, officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length dress of wild mulberry crepe with nylon yoke, grey and black accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses and stephanotis. Miss Mabel Edwards, as her sister's only attendant, chose a street-length gown of winter night crepe with black accessories and a corsage of roses and stephanotis. Mr. Kenneth Groves, Newmarket, was best man.

At the reception the bride's mother received in black crepe with satin trim, and a corsage of red roses and stephanotis. She was assisted by the groom's mother in navy flowered crepe with white accessories and a corsage of white roses and stephanotis. For travelling to North Bay and Ottawa, the bride chose a navy wool gabardine suit with grey accessories. On their return they will reside in Newmarket.

Homemakers' Exchange

Most homemakers use large quantities of melons and grapes at this season of the year. A large bowl of grapes is acceptable at any time and makes an easy dessert for out-of-door suppers. Chilled melon is delicious either in salad or dessert and is particularly so when topped with ice cream. These three dessert recipes use melons and grapes in a more novel fashion.

MELON ICE

1 Cantaloupe
1½ Cup water
¾ Cup lemon juice

Remove rind and seeds from cantaloupe and force pulp through colander. Make a syrup of the water and sugar and simmer five minutes. Cool. Add the cantaloupe pulp and juice and the lemon juice. Freeze in an automatic refrigerator tray, stirring occasionally.

GRAPE SOUFFLE

2 Cups blue grapes, stemmed and washed
½ Cup sugar
2 Tbsp. cornstarch
3 Egg whites

Crush grapes in a saucepan with fork. Simmer for about 15 minutes or until soft. Press through sieve. Mix sugar, salt and cornstarch. Add to sieved grapes, gradually stirring to blend. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened and clear. Cool. Fold grape mixture in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into buttered baking dish. Oven-poach in a moderately slow oven (325 degrees) for 45 minutes. Serve hot or cold with custard sauce. Yield: six servings.

GRAPE CUSTARD SPONGE

1½ Tsp. gelatine
2 Tbsp. cold water
1 Egg yolk
3 Tbsp. sugar
Few grains salt
½ Cup scalded milk
1½ Cup sieved grape pulp
1 Egg white

Soak gelatine in cold water for five minutes. Beat egg yolk slightly, add sugar and salt. Slowly stir in the scalded milk and cook over hot water, stirring constantly, until custard is thickened sufficiently to coat spoon. Add softened gelatine and stir until gelatine is dissolved.

solved, strain. Cook, stirring occasionally until mixture just begins to set. Using a rotary beater, beat in grape pulp, chill, stirring occasionally, until mixture just begins to set again. Beat egg white until stiff but not dry. Beat the gelatine mixture until frothy, then fold in the stiffly-beaten egg white. Turn into individual dessert glasses. Chill. Serve with cream. Yield: six servings.

Young Hopefuls

By DOROTHY MUIR BOWMAN

Jean, five years old, is being effectively disciplined by means of the surprise treatment. As an infant, feeding problems were the main ones; Jean's mother used the surprise treatment, which worked when seemingly all other methods had failed.

Jean was accustomed to opening her mouth and simply howling when a new food was introduced to her. At just such a time, when Jean's mouth was wide open, mother, simply and suddenly emptied the contents of a spoon into Jean's mouth. The surprise of suddenly finding food in her mouth, startled Jean to the extent of causing her to promptly close her mouth. Then she was obliged to taste the food for the first time. The taste didn't usually displease her; so, there was nothing further to howl about.

When Jean was a little older, there were times when measures had to be taken to control her definitely willful manner of defying authority. The first time, mother tried the surprise method of discipline on Jean, it worked. Jean was about four years old at the time. Her mother had called her into the house. Jean understood what was wanted; but, instead of coming at the call, she turned and ran in the opposite direction.

On this particular occasion, mother wasn't dressed for a public appearance. However, Jean was running up the street and there was no time to remove curlers or apron; so mother went as she was, and quickly, too. Jean had never run from her mother previous to this time, so mother didn't know what to expect. Would Jean venture across the busy thoroughfare that was at the end of the block? Mother exerted every effort to catch Jean before she reached the corner.

When Jean reached the corner, she paused and turned back to see if mother was still chasing her. That instant's delay on Jean's part gave mother an advantage of some extra steps. When Jean saw her mother with curlers in her hair, wildly dashing toward her, she was somewhat startled — but the climax came when mother, instead of verbally reprimanding her, simply and quickly lifted her bodily and transported her home, without a word. Once home, mother sat Jean definitely on a chair. No words were spoken and Jean sat almost stunned for some minutes before venturing to leave the chair.

The next day, Jean came promptly when mother called and hasn't needed to be reminded of the previous episode more than twice during the past year. Now, at the age of five, when Jean is in need of discipline, variations of the surprise treatment — no words, just sudden actions on mother's part — are proving equally effective.

INITIATED BY LEGION

Aurora—Three new members were initiated into Branch 385, Canadian Legion, last week: M. M. "Mac" Fowler, W. H. Bradley and Miss C. Hitchcock. As an indication of the growing strength, seven additional applications for membership were received and these veterans will be initiated at the October meeting.

REVILL-GRAHAM

rites at Elmvale

Vari-colored gladioli and evergreens formed the background for a lovely wedding in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Elmvale, August 21, at 3 p.m., when Agnes Jean, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham, Elmvale, was united in marriage to William Joseph Revill, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Revill of Newmarket. Reverend J. L. Burgess officiated. Miss Mary Currie, Elmvale, played the wedding music and during the signing of the register Mr. Charles Boyd of Newmarket sang "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a gown of white brocaded taffeta, the fitted bodice featuring a scalloped bertha and long pointed sleeves, the bouffant skirt forming a sweeping train. Her finger-tip veil of tulle illusion was caught to a halo of lily-of-the-valley. She carried a cascade of red and white roses and white gladioli. She wore a gold watch, the gift of the groom.

Attending the bride were her sisters, Mrs. C. J. Baker, as matron-of-honor, and Miss Margaret Graham as bridesmaid. They wore gowns of brocaded taffeta fashioned on the same lines as the bride's, the matron of honor in maize and the bridesmaid in sea-foam. They wore matching velvet bonnet hats and carried nosegays of roses, gladioli and asters. Little Phyllis Graham, cousin of the bride, was flower-girl, dressed in white brocaded taffeta with flower headress and nosegay.

Mr. Robert Cody, Newmarket, acted as groomsman and the ushers were Clifford Gunn, Newmarket, and Donald Graham, Elmvale.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. G. H. Rowley, of Elmvale. The bride's mother received wearing a gown of tulle and black accessories and a corsage of white roses. She was assisted by Mrs. Revill, mother of the groom, in a hunter's green frock with matching accessories and wearing a corsage of yellow roses.

For the wedding trip to Muskoka the bride donned a navy and white suit dress with navy accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. They will reside in Newmarket. Guests were present from Toronto, Niagara Falls, Newmarket, Bradford, Stoney Creek, Cleveland, Ohio, Barrie and Stayner.

Pottageville Couple Have 50th Anniversary

On September 5, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Patton was the scene of a happy event, their fiftieth wedding anniversary. When many relatives, friends and neighbors called to extend warm congratulations. The tea table was centred by a large bouquet of 50 beautiful yellow roses and a three-tier wedding cake. At one end of the table Mrs. Armstrong, the eldest daughter, poured tea while the other daughters and grandchildren served the many guests. The happy couple were the recipients of lovely and useful gifts.

The family presented their mother with a set of gold earrings and brooch, and Mr. Patton with a gold watch chain and pin lodge insignia. Mr. and Mrs. Patton have lived all their married life in Pottageville, and consequently have a host of friends here who join in wishing them many more years of happy wedded life.

BITS FROM HERE AND THERE

Bringing Up Towser

Beauty's one remaining baby is having a rather hectic career. If there were such a thing as a cat psychiatrist, I think Beauty would be an interesting patient. She has obsessions, especially about getting her child into almost inaccessible spots. This can be traced to Beauty's mother dragging her from place to place—getting her into corners from which she was unable to extricate her and then coming to us for the rescue.

We hope that Towser will survive the process of being educated. For instance, we'd hear mournful roars and rushing upstairs thinking that Blackie had murdered the kitten or that it had drowned in a water pitcher, we'd find Beauty smugly grinning at us and the kitten hidden somewhere—one day I found it in a small waste paper basket—so small that when Beauty got in too and turned round it like a python, all that was visible of the kit was two bright eyes and an incredibly impudent nose.

Kittens and shoes seem to come together naturally. If the man of the house or I go to put on shoes, we often find them p.o.-occupied—a head pokes out and an indignant kitten has to be ejected before the shoes can be put on.

This kitten, too, has a delightful (?) habit of running at your feet, the sequel to which is, of course, that not seeing it, you shove the kitten the length of the room and stagger wildly about trying not to hurt it and at the same time to keep your balance.

Six Inches Long

Towser has now reached the stage—he is six inches long—where he can carry a little paper ball in his mouth, make runs in your stockings, play leap frog over his mother's back and put his back up and spit if you come in suddenly—we await further developments.

Viewing The Town

How long can you live in or near a town and still know little about it? The main streets—yes—but the improvements in the old streets, the new sections, the rapid outgrowth toward pastures new—these, too, often escape our pre-occupied attention.

So, one day when Mrs. G. McClure and I accompanied the other half of the family to town, we decided that when there was a town bus, why not take advantage of it and as our old friend and neighbor, Larry Needler, was at the wheel, we had an excellent guide. We went along streets I had never known existed before and everywhere from east to west—from north to south were new houses—small houses, quaint houses, big houses and plain houses, but all rising to meet the need of an increasing population.

I like the little white town where once lived our young men preparing for the ghastly game of war. Now instead of drum and bugle there are the sounds of family life—men leaving in the morning for work, children's voices as they play on the ground that once resounded to the tramp of marching feet and flowers blooming where once the earth was packed by those same feet. We do not know what the future holds of war or peace, but it is pleasant on this breathing spell to see these fruits of even an uneasy peace.

'By Leaps and Bounds'

Newmarket is growing by leaps and bounds and the town fathers will have their work cut out for them to provide the moral, spiritual, educational and industrial facilities to cope with the expansion. The bus ride opened my eyes to the town's expansion and as I looked at the new homes and the many new faces, I thought of what an opportunity lay here for our churches, schools and every educational facility which can be brought into play. Yes, we enjoyed our bus ride and learned from it, too.

A Reunion, An Anniversary And a Presentation Party

Our Pleasantville community was the scene of these three events within the narrow compass of two days. On Monday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Starr gathered children and grandchildren under their own vine and fig tree while sisters and nephews and nieces came together at the home of Mrs. Esther Hawtin and the Arthur Starrs. It was a welcome home to Francis Starr and his bride—an opportunity for the family to meet Dorothy Starr and to receive her into the full membership of the large congregation. Movies were shown of the lands where Francis and Dorothy shared peril and service and happiness reigned supreme where old memories were reviewed and new ones stored away.

On the following evening Mr. and Mrs. George Hunt celebrated their 38th wedding anniversary and friends treated them to a surprise party. They were the recipients of many delightful gifts and a happy evening flew by on swift wings.

The same evening a community presentation to Francis and Dorothy Starr took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith. After community singing led by the other half of the family, the guests of honor heard an address read by Mr. Harry Penrose and were then presented with a beautiful table lamp and three gorgeous blankets.

Both recipients spoke a few very suitable words of thanks and the company broke up into groups to enjoy sandwiches, cake and tea and talk of everything from peaches to Pakistan.

BARBARA SEATON WED IN AURORA

Aurora United church, decorated with gladioli and fall flowers, was the scene of a pretty wedding September 4 when Doris Barbara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Seaton, Yonge St., Aurora, became the bride of Mr. Elmer Gerald Hunsperger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hunsperger, Hanover, Rev. H. Howey officiated and Mrs. James Emmons played chimes during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length white satin gown, fingertip veil with seeded pearl headpiece. She carried red roses. Miss Joyce Seaton, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, chose a yellow sheer gown with flowered headpiece and carried an old-fashioned nosegay. Miss Jane Badger, the bridesmaid, wore blue sheer with flowered headpiece and carried an old-fashioned nosegay. Mr. Frank Frantzen was best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Jack Walters and Fred Schow.

The reception was held at Trinity Parish hall, the bride's mother receiving in cinnamon brown, brown accessories and corsage, the groom's mother assisted in black figured jersey, black accessories and corsage. For travelling to Northern Ontario the bride chose a grey suit with black accessories. Guests were present from Toronto, Chesley and Hanover. On their return they will reside in Toronto.

FINISH THIRD

Aurora — Barbara Acheson, Ruth Corbett, Thelma Gordon and Joyce Hewitt, representing Aurora high school, finished third in the C.N.E. "supper for four" contest on Friday. The contest was held in full view of passing crowds in the Woman's World section. Winchester high school finished first.

St. James W.A. Prepares For Fall Activities

The September meeting of St. James' church, Sharon, was held September 8 at Mrs. Fred Hall's home with an attendance of 14 members and three guests. Following prayer, Mrs. W. Osler read from the Scriptures, Mrs. J. Hall offering to take the reading for October. A letter of appreciation from Mrs. R. Priestman for Dorcas work was read and it was resolved to continue it this year. Mrs. A. Thomas reported the sending of another box to Britain. Mrs. Hall reported on the deaconry meeting at Schoenberg. The rector, Rev. Puxley, gave a resume of the last meeting of the church council and reported the chimney built in the church and his hopes for the installation of the furnace soon. He sought the co-operation of the W.A. and church workers to raise the required funds. A bee to clean up the yard, a parish supper, a nativity play at Christmas time, a movie in November and progressive eucharies were among the activities outlined. The Thanksgiving service will likely be held September 19 in the evening. W.A. workers volunteered to decorate the church for the occasion.

Mrs. R. Rogers introduced the deaconry officer, Mrs. Chatterby, Richmond Hill. She gave a brief and interesting talk on the work and said she would be happy to meet all the branches of the West York deaconry. The October meeting will be at Mrs. W. Wilmoth's home on October 13. The rector closed the meeting with prayer and benediction.

NOW...A Snow Blower at low cost

SNOW MASTER Junior!

EXCLUSIVE "Wrist-Action"
Chute and Long Range
Reversible Casting Turbine

Sicard's sensational SNOW MASTER Junior answers a vital dominion-wide need of smaller communities, county councils, contractors and industries for an economical yet effective means of snow removal. The Junior is the first low-cost snow blower that's designed and built for its job from the drafting board stage right through to leading performance proved in action.

The Junior's sturdily built with more than enough power to take on the toughest jobs where other types are forced to leave off. Its low cost makes high performance available to communities and companies everywhere with limited budgets. Yet its engineering, materials and mechanical features are identical with the famous SNOW MASTER — Canada's leading snow blower for over 25 years.

EXCLUSIVE FEATURES

PATENTED "WRIST-ACTION" CHUTE

Sicard's "Wrist-action" loading and lawn casting chute is fully maneuverable on a 220° arc, with a telescopic distance control for pin-point precision casting which leaves driveways, lanes and intersecting streets clear of snow without loss of time or backtracking. For "back-loading" trucks the tremendous force of snow propulsion superloads every truck in record time.

LONG RANGE CASTING TURBINE

The powerful casting turbine casts snow up to 150 feet to either side. Its long range allows operator to cast with the wind and avoid drifting of snow back onto cleared areas. Unrivalled for clearing roads, airports, industrial yards and for close-in work around buildings and in crowded downtown districts. The Junior's short 100" wheel-base gives easy maneuverability combined with super-power and sturdiness.

YOUR HYDRO CHAIRMAN REPORTS on the Power Shortage

THE HYDRO-ELECTRIC POWER COMMISSION OF ONTARIO

620 UNIVERSITY AVENUE
TORONTO 2

ROBERT H. SAUNDERS, C.D.E., K.C.
CHAIRMAN

September 11, 1948.

Dear Fellow Citizens:

The demand for electricity from all classes of the community - homes, farms and industries - all over Ontario, is still mounting. Homes are being built, the demand for increased production from farms is steadily increasing and industry is pressing forward with plans for expansion, plans that mean greater production and more jobs to keep Ontario prosperous.

It is anticipated that the increase in demand over the available supply will amount to in excess of four million kilowatt hours per day, and conservation measures have been put into effect as of Tuesday, September 14th. These will include reductions in the supply for show windows, office lighting and certain industries, banning outdoor electrical signs and in other ways. Even with all these reductions we will still be short 1,200,000 kilowatt hours per day but to insist on more would have a hampering effect on industry and seriously reduce employment.

Where then can we get the vitally needed power? From you and every individual Hydro user in Ontario. How much should you save? Take a 60-watt electric lamp as an example. For every 24 hours it burns, it requires almost one and a half kilowatt hours of current. If every one of the 900,000 Hydro users in Ontario will save the equivalent of that much electricity every day there will be no need for cut offs.

Everyone must do his or her part. It should be a 24 hour effort. Turn off every light, switch off every motor or appliance the moment it is not needed. Particularly, watch the switches on your electric range.

The situation is critical. Full employment must be maintained and the support of every householder, every commercial user and every industrial consumer is essential in avoiding the waste of electricity.

Robert H. Saunders
Chairman,
The Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario.

Ball fever, that fall complaint, which to most of us is as welcome as the flowers in May, has both Newmarket and Aurora, in its grip. Locally our midgets have reached the semi-finals in the O.B.A. saw-offs. We haven't had a team up that high in years and years. Four teams remain in the hunt, Goderich, Prescott, Fort Erie and our own Lions. The Lions are slated to go against Fort Erie in the next bracket.

Len Simmons and his junior ball hawks are currently waging a series with Simcoe, playing away Wednesday with the return engagement at Aurora Saturday. Six teams remain in the junior race, Aurora vs. Simcoe, Dresden vs. Goderich, Whitby vs. Gananogue, with this likely to be cut to three before the week is out. Grant Blight, "Chesty" Bovair, Don "Banker" Brown, Ken Broughton, "Red" Palmateer, Tom McHale and Don Gibson carrying the canal town interest in our sister town's club. Here's luck, lads.

Lake Simcoe softball derby is at an end and Mount Albert is once again "The Champ." They turned back the Hope challenge three games to one. In that four-game series, close to 5,000 fans gave vocal support to their favorites. In the after-the-game ceremony, at which the trophy was presented to Ken "Red" Mitchell, Mount Albert's perennial winning pitcher, and Murray Roberts, Mitch opined "one of the best series in the league's history. Congratulations to Hope on their fine fight and good sportsmanship." Manager Murray Roberts (now he can unpack his travelling gear) voiced the same sentiments.

The Stan Cook trophy which goes to Lake Simcoe winner, was placed in competition for the first time in 1933. It was won that year by Queensville. It now rests for a third successive year at Mount Albert.

Ladies' softball doings: Right now, Skipper Frank Courtney and Coach Chuck VanZant are marking time before leading their squad into the Barrie League finals, a hitch apparently developing in the Midland-Barrie Valley's series. The first tilt went to Valley's 6-4 and the second with Valley's in the lead was halted by rain. The league executive is getting together to iron out the difficulties so we are advised.

Olds 'n' Ends: Lacrosse play-offs are underway. Newmarket meets Maple in the arena Friday night. Hal, Gwyn, Hal, Smart and Ed, O'Halloran and crew might pull a surprise. Ross Chapman, Bob Pollock, Horace Pearson, Ivan Eves and Doug, Hope and other members of the Lake Simcoe executive did a fine job over the past season. They wind up their business next Monday in Sharon. Prexy Chapman sends out a call for all teams to send a representative.

Cobourg "Pavilions" who eliminated both Newmarket and Midland Ladies in the P.W.S.U. play-downs got the same treatment from Welland, the latter club ousting them with two wins at home. It's Welland in the Ontario finals. How Welland rates intermediate B rating is one for the books. It is a city well over the 10,000 mark.

Maple built themselves into a comfortable 5-0 lead at half time. For 13 minutes of that initial session, our lads held their own then Maple broke through for their first marker, and had increased it to five by half time. Defenceman Scotty Johnston raised a glimmer of hope as he whipped in a goal to keep the white-wash brush from descending. Maple countered with a goal to increase their lead to 6-1 at the three-quarter mark.

Things got gloomier in the final round as Maple slugged in three goals. Harold Smart with some clever stick handling boosted our total up to two. Maple had nine and that's how it ended. The penalties, 11 all told, were dished out seven to Maple and four to us. A mild tussle developed in the third that had the penalty timers busy but it didn't reach serious proportions. They go at it again Friday night in the Newmarket arena. Our red and whites must come through with their first win or put away their trusty weapons.

Newmarket Vets Meet Scarboro Saturday

"Ceegars" McDonald and his softball men, North Yonge Champions, if you please, are going to give the local following a chance to see them in action Saturday evening at six chimes. They'll play a return engagement with Brown's Motors of the Scarboro League. Right now — we'll stand correction if need be — the Vets are the best softball club in York county with the exception of the senior teams in the big city.

Hail The Champs-Mt. Albert

Lions Slaughter Collingwood 31-2

The Lions midgets, hot on the baseball trail, massacred a weak Collingwood squad Saturday afternoon in the Georgian Bay town, 31-2. The northerners, making their first start of the season in O.B.A. competition, asked for a halt to the slaughter at the end of seven innings.

Those slugging Lions gave out with a mighty hitting bombardment. Here's how the Newmarket assault on four Collingwood hurlers reads: 31 runs, 21 hits, which included 2 triples, 8 doubles and 11 singles. Tossed in with this hitting assault were nine walks and the Collingwood lads contributed eight errors and two of the Lions were hit by the pitcher. That's a full day, believe me, for any scorer.

Not satisfied with the above, the Lions with short stop Jerry Hugo pulling the stunt, worked the hidden ball on Collingwood in that initial chapter to take the steam out of them right there and then. Leading the Newmarket assault at the plate was Harold Stevenson with four hits in six trips up to the dish. Orrie Thoms, Don Duncan and "Spike" Cain gave their mate a run for the batting crown with three apiece. All except Andy Closs of the regulars bashed out at least one safety.

In all but one frame, the fifth, Bill Haskett's Lions put over a run. It was seven in that first frame, five in the second.

MEET FORT ERIE

Final arrangements for the semi-final round of the O.B.A. midget playdowns have now been completed. The local Lions will make the long haul to Fort Erie this Saturday to open the series at 4 p.m. at Oakes Park. The return game will be up for decision here Wednesday, Sept. 22, at four bells. This should mean the largest turn-out of the season at Pantry Park. Right now four teams remain in the hunt, for the Ontario crown. They are Goderich, Prescott, Fort Erie and our own Lions. Since entering the O.B.A. saw-offs, the Lions haven't dropped a game. Coach Bill Haskett looks for some tough opposition from the Forts. Up and at 'em, lads.

Production slowed down to two each in the third and fourth with the Lions topping it off with eight in the sixth, and seven in the seventh. "Orrie" Thoms on the Newmarket hill went the route, allowed but two hits, both going to Bob Heron. Both Collingwood runs were unearned, coming as a result of errors. The Georgian Bay crew asked for a halt to proceedings after seven frames and indicated they didn't think it wise — an understatement if I ever heard one — to play the return game.

Aurora Vs. Simcoe In Fourth Round

Drop First Semi Must Win Friday

Under the stars, amid the swirling dust of the Maple Lacrosse bowl, our lacrosse hopefuls started their play-off whirl Tuesday evening. The sad news is they are one game down in the best two out of three series with Maple. It's the semi-finals for the group honors. The Maples ran up a 9-2 count over our lads.

With bats resounding merrily, Aurora took Meaford in the second game of the fourth round O.B.A. playdowns on Saturday afternoon at Aurora at 4 p.m. Aurora played in Simcoe yesterday. A capacity crowd is expected and manager Leonard Simmons and his boys are hoping for full support from district fans. Left in the OBS series besides Aurora and Simcoe, are Whitby or Gananogue, Dresden or Goderich. The winner of the Aurora-Simcoe series has the right to expect a berth in the finals.

With bats resounding merrily, Aurora took Meaford in the second game of the series last Thursday 11-0. It was another garrison finish with the Georgian Bay boys fighting hard to the end. Southpaw Norm Stunden went the route for Aurora as did right-hander Franklin for Meaford and both boys, while hit hard, tightened in the vital spots. Meaford took 3-0 lead in the first, but Ron Simmons and his playmates erased that in the second, Simmons belting a homer with the sacks loaded in the second. Dan Bovair followed suit in the third with a mate aboard to make it 7-3. Meaford came back with two in the fourth while Aurora added another in the fifth, leaving the score 9-5. Bill McGhee belted out a homer in the seventh and the fans thought it was in the bag. The Meaford clan lashed out savagely in the top of the eighth, Keer pounding out a four-ply smash to clear the sacks and cut Aurora's lead to one run. Tommy McHale teed-off on a fast ball in Aurora's half to give Stunden a little better working lead. Confident and calmly and backed by a beautiful running catch from McGhee, Stunden kept things under control in top of the ninth to send Aurora into the next round. The entire Aurora team played good ball, while Meaford shifted their line-up considerably from the first game, having 16 players dressed for the contest. The only change in the Aurora line-up was Bovair replacing Smith in leftfield as Smith was detained at work.

Ramblers Have One Game In Hoffman Series

Those Hoffman softball teams have wound up their regular schedule and it's Hank VanZant's merry men of the Drill Twisters topping the parade by a comfortable margin. The Ramblers headed by Bob Benville grabbed off second spot, three points in advance of McEann's faltering Herd. So it's the Ramblers and Herd in the semi-finals, two out of three with the survivors meeting the high-flying Drill Twisters for the championship.

The semis opened Tuesday in a whirlwind of base hits and runs. The Ramblers romped to a 20-10 win over the Herd. Benville's men now carry a game advantage. Indeed it was a free hitting tussle. "Hutch" Hutchison, the Ramblers' starting pitcher, bashed out a homer, "Hutch," when he started serving up his offerings, was a trifle free with the home run balls. Jack Hamilton lashed out a pair, Frank Daniels and Ivan Ruckdoek also getting in base circling clouds. Bob Benville mopped up the Herd as he went to the mound in the final frames. Ivan Ruckdoek, the Herd's tosser, got billed for the loss.

The Ramblers had 20 hits in their winning effort, the Herd recorded 20. The Herd put over eight runs in the third, the Ramblers seven in their sixth and five in the second. It's tonight for the second game on the fair grounds.

Bill Mundell Tries Out With St. Louis Flyers

Bill Mundell left Aurora on Monday for Midland for a trial with St. Louis Flyers. Young Mundell, former Aurora-Richmond 1941 junior, played last year in Scotland with Paisley where he collected 64 scoring points. In top condition, Mundell is determined to show coach Ernie Goodfellow he has the stuff to make good. Joint McComb was instrumental in securing Mundell a chance to show his worth. Training at Midland with the Flyers are Fresno Falcons of the St. Louis chain and it may be that if the Aurora boy does make the grade with the Flyers he will team up with Fresno. The Flyers have exhibition games listed against both Chicago Black Hawks and Fresno for next week and both McComb and Mundell will see action. District sports fans will be pulling for the Aurora boy to make good in the big time.

By GEO. HASKETT, JR.

The folks up Lake Simcoe way said it couldn't happen again. But it has. Mount Albert is once again champion of the Lake Simcoe softball circuit for the third year in a row. Monday night the Mounts clinched the crown with a convincing 11-6 win over Hope. That gave the Mount the final series three games to one.

Snack off the starting pitch from "Lefty" Don Glover Monday, the Mounties went to work. In that first frame there was no stopping them. When the smoke had cleared and the noses were counted, Mount Albert had put across seven runs, doubles by Doug Ross, Bob Stokes, "Red" Mitchell and Kelly Case doing the main damage to Hope's cause, Murray Roberts' lads went for another three in the second, Kelly Case's homer and Hal Watts' triple being the important blows. That, as events turned out, was enough to salt the old game away.

Hope didn't get onto the score sheet until the third when they got in the game with a bang. Bruce Townsley singling with one away and crossing with the first marker on Doug Eves' three-base blow, a walk to Ross Eves and singles by Murray Tansley and Russell Pegg gave them five tallies.

From then in, each team settled for a run. Doug Eves' home run blast that bounced into the rink was Hope's final marker. Mount Albert put across a run in the sixth on Charlie Green's and Doug Ross' singles and an infield bobbie.

While it wasn't a pitcher's night by any means "Red" Mitchell held an advantage in this department over his rival, Don Glover. Mount Albert punched out a total of 18 hits with Chas. Green and Doug Ross leading with four apiece. Murray Tansley had three singles in the Hope cause, Doug Eves a homer and a triple.

Peering back at last Friday's contest when Hope earned their lone victory of the series, it was after the second frame that Hope found themselves one marker down. They stayed that way until their sixth. Then they struck pay dirt and evened it up. Doug Eves dropped down a perfect bunt and was delivered to the home base on Russell Pegg's double. Double trouble developed for Hope in the seventh. Bob Stokes was put aboard on an error and Harold Watts and Morley Case delivered successive singles to plate two runs. It looked an insurmountable hurdle but Hope came up for their seventh with that hitting gleam in their eyes. Cliff Ward started the rally with a single, Bruce Townsley doubled to plate one run. Lon Ganton duplicated his teammate's two baser, scoring Townsley with that tying run. Ganton slipped over to third on the first infield out. Doug Eves, the next swinger, down from a pitched ball but not out, cashed in Ganton with the winning run. Approximately 1,200 roaring fans gave their favorites all the encouragement needed to put on a thriller.

Fielding on both sides was tops with an extra hurrah for Floyd Green, for a pair of nifty catches and some fast fielding. Lefty "Don" Glover pitching a steady game set the Mounties down with three hits—indeed Glover had a no-hitter until the sixth.

So now we hail those champion Mount Albert lads. Here's the team: Doug Ross, Bob Stokes, Ross Draper, Hal Watts, Morley Case, Ken "Red" Mitchell, Judd Rutledge, Kelly Case, Chas. Green, Vern Pegg, Ron Young, Doug Simpson, manager Murray Roberts. The runners-up, Hope: Cliff Ward, Bruce Townsley, Lon Ganton, Doug Eves, Floyd Green, Murray Tansley, Ross Eves, Russell Pegg, Don Glover.

President Ross Chapman requests all teams to send a representative to the winding up meeting to be held at Sharon next Monday night, Sept. 20, at 8 p.m.

Newmarket Women Win Aurora Net Test

In the invitation doubles tournament at Aurora tennis courts last Friday and Saturday, Joyce Bothwell and Joan Popplitt took down top honors in the ladies' doubles. Four teams entered the event and the champions were arrived at in a round robin play.

In the men's doubles, Keith Davis teamed up with that Aurora veteran of the courts, Wilf Adams. They ran through to the championship without the loss of a single set, defeating Frank Wilms and Keith Nesbitt in the finals, 6-1, 6-0, 6-4.

From Barrie comes a reminder that the hockey season is close at hand. Barrie Flyers of the junior A series and 1948 O.H.A. fans from the district who wish to secure seating accommodation had better move fast. Over a score of Aurora-Newmarket folk followed the Flyers regularly last winter and the list will be increased this season. Joint McComb reported to the St. Louis camp at Midland this week and reported himself as in the best shape of his career. Herbie Cain, ready for another whirl in the monied ranks, leaves shortly for Hershey, Pa. This may be Herb's last season as player in the Boston chain before taking over a coaching job. Nick Bangay will be with Philadelphia Rockets, as last season, and he'll be joined by brother Bob Bangay and possibly one other member of the '48 Markham Millionaires squad. Ron Simmons will stick with Aurora juniors, now that Red Mitchell will coach the team, and will not try out with Barrie Flyers. No word has been received of Jack Andrews' intent. Bill Boychoff, Aurora Flyers, and Doug Moore, Stouffville, will journey to Guelph for a looksee from Roy Mason and company. Ken Broughton has returned to Galt for further consultation but will likely be found with Aurora juniors this winter.

Hitler and you corner: We have on hand a number of booklets on Conservation and Wild Life published on behalf of a well known suds company. The booklet is well worth having especially for nimrods and anglers and is one of the best of its kind. It's for free. New Toronto Legion belted Woodbridge out of the running in the first round of the O.S.A. intermediate playdowns.

Bruce Yake, Aurora, once set a record of drinking 32 cups of java at Les Beazer's Hamburger Heaven and they didn't hand out water wings either. Bob Norton, Uxbridge high, took the running broad jump event at the OAC camp at Orillia last month. He only had to do 18' 2". Don Sadler, Richmond Hill, was third in the high jump event. Junior golfers from the Briars club at Jackson's Point made a fine showing in the O.J.G. matches at Burlington. Tom Chipman, John Learoyd, Crawford Lyttle and Bill Shanahan posted creditable scores in their flights. Young Shag, who plays in the 15-16 bracket, fired a gross 167 for 36 holes. Don Little, Richmond Hill all-round athlete who plays out of Summit, also did well. Art Nicol, Owen Sound, with whom it has been our pleasure to work as a fellow umpire on several occasions, set a record for Ontario arbiters to shoot at. Unable to get away from work in time to umpire the first game between Shaw Lake and Collingwood juveniles, the teams agreed to transport "Mr. Umps" via air in order that the capable Art could handle the game.

It was a pip! We refer to the annual party of Newmarket Vets held on Monday in the Legion Hall. Our thanks for the bid and congrats to "Ceegars" and all the lads who annexed the Joe Spillette Trophy for the third straight year. Most of the boys like old man river, "just keep rolling along".

FARM BULLETIN

IS THE HAND PUMP ECONOMICAL?

Although the farm hand pump is often considered an economical source of water, experts point out that thousands of hours are spent each year pumping and hauling water—time that farmers could use more profitably. The following table—based on a pumping rate of 300 gallons an hour and a wage rate of 40¢ an hour—gives an idea of this:

Consumed by	Gallons per year	Hours of Pumping	Cost to Farmer
1 person	2,920	9.6	$3.84
1 cow	5,475	18.0	7.20
1 horse	3,650	12.0	4.80
1 hog	730	2.4	.96

Running water is only one type of progressive farm improvement for which Farm Improvement Loans are obtainable, covering from two-thirds to ninety per cent. of cost. Such loans provide ready cash to help make repairs, alterations or additions to farm buildings, to build new fences, install electric systems, buy new foundation or breeding stock, implements, machinery, equipment, etc. The largest individual loan obtainable is $5,000., and ample time is allowed for repayment.

The manager of our nearest branch will be glad to give you complete details. Drop in and see him.
